The ATLA RELIGION DATABASE is available online through BRS Information Technologies, 1200 Route 7, Latham, New York 12110 (1-800-345-4277), and through Dialog Information Services, 3460 Hillview Avenue, Palo Alto, California 94304 (1-800-227-1960). The online database includes Religion Index One: Periodicals (RIO®), volumes 1-4 (1949-59) and 12- (1975-), all of Religion Index Two: Multi-Author Works (RIT®) (1960-), Index to Book Reviews in Religion (IBRR) (1986-), and all of Research in Ministry (RIM®) (1981-).

PREFACE

Volume 19 (1987) of Religion Index One: Periodicals is evidence of the successful transition from earlier technology which required heavy use of a computer service bureau to an in-house system incorporating state-of-the-art technology. Now programs are being written which will make even more effective use of the microcomputers for Volume 20.

Journals received by March 3, 1988 are indexed in Volume 19 (1987). Issues which have arrived after that date will be included in Volume 20 (1988). The cut-off date for the 1988 semiannual will be July 30, 1988. Moving publication dates to June for the annuals and to October for the semiannuals has resulted in a somewhat smaller annual for 1987. This change reflects the ATLA Index Board's concern that publication dates be advanced three months.

The 10,028 records for 1987 have been expanded to 28,016 subject entries. The number of subject entries per article varies. There are 9,488 entries in the Author and Editor Index. Some news items are unsigned and in other cases author names are included in the subject entry only. These include two or more contributions by an editor already acknowledged in a contents entry, materials covered by a blanket reference, and obituaries. In numerous cases two or three parts of an article have been drawn into a single entry by combining citations for the separate issues. Generally, form entries only are given to sermons and short stories. More poems are available online than in print. The Religion Indexes Thesaurus relies heavily on Library of Congress subject headings but adjustments are made for the religion discipline orientation of the indexes.

The Scripture Index, located in the final section, references specific Bible texts arranged canonically. It complements the larger Bible section in the Subject Index.

The 58 journal titles added in 1986 and 1987 are listed following the Periodicals Indexed section.

The editors express their appreciation to all named on the previous page. Graduate students bring their subject competence and enthusiasm to the indexing task as a part-time service that they fit into academic schedules. The ATLA Index Board is committed to the publication of quality indexes in religion. Also, librarians at the Jesuit-Krauss McCormick Library, the Joseph Regenstein Library of the University of Chicago, and the Catholic Theological Union Library are particularly generous in providing borrowing privileges so that we may index journals not otherwise available.

G. Fay Dickerson, Editor

MISSION STATEMENT
FOR
RELIGION INDEX ONE: PERIODICALS (RIO)
AND RELIGION INDEX TWO: MULTI-AUTHOR WORKS (RIT)

It shall be the purpose of RIO and RIT to index those articles in the field of religion--particularly religion and religious scholarship in the West--which are germane to research in and serve to document that field. The intended audience includes scholars, teachers, students who are engaged in the study of religion and related fields; clergy; other religious leaders; and the general reader in religion.
